Open-ear comfort with Grundig OWS Wireless Earphones

Experience a new standard of situational awareness with the Grundig OWS (Open Wearable Stereo) Wireless Earphones. Designed to rest comfortably securely around the ear rather than inside the ear canal, these lightweight earphones provide high-quality audio while keeping your relations fully aware of their surroundings. It's the ultimate, ergonomic choice for safe commuting, walking meetings, or staying approachable in a collaborative office.

Long-lasting power and modern business style

Featuring seamless Bluetooth connectivity and an impressive battery life supported by its sleek, transparent-accented charging case, these earphones ensure your team stays connected throughout the day. Rapid USB-C charging makes it incredibly easy to power up on the move. This innovative and stylish gadget makes for a highly distinct corporate gift, proving that your brand is entirely aligned with modern tech trends!

- Bluetooth connection for wireless freedom
- Long battery life with charging case
