High-quality Kodak products, fully customizable for customers

Personalized Kodak solutions, delivered quickly from stock

Kodak is synonymous worldwide with image, print, and reliable technology. For over a century, Kodak has developed products that combine quality, ease of use, and innovation. This strong brand equity forms a powerful foundation for high-quality, customizable product solutions.

The range includes photography, print, and projection solutions that are ideally suited for personalization. Through branding, sleeves, and custom finishing, these Kodak products transform technology into visible brand assets with lasting impact.

Personalized Kodak products are ideal for business applications where functionality and brand visibility converge. Think of events, trade shows, activations, internal communications, and promotional gifts, where immediate use and lasting visibility are essential.

In addition to devices, matching consumables are also supplied, such as photographic printing paper and label materials.
